Bootcamp

27–28 Sept, Marrakech

Eloquium
LABS

2 days. 20 hours. 1 transformation.

The Eloquium Debate Bootcamp is where Morocco's next generation of debaters comes alive. After the fierce competition of the Eloquium Cup (April 2025) and the energy-charged Summer Camp (July 2025), we're bringing together the boldest, most ambitious students for hands-on, adrenaline-fueled training in debate fundamentals.

This is your chance to master case-building basics, get your first taste of POIs, and step onto the debate floor with confidence, all in an environment that's supportive, high-energy, and designed to push you beyond your limits.

Thanks to our strong connection with The Moroccan National Debate Team, we're able to bring insights and guidance informed by Morocco's debate leaders, while keeping this program fully independent and focused on your growth.

This is beginner-friendly, practical training built to give you the tools and confidence to excel in debate competitions and beyond.

During these two days, you'll:

- Learn foundational case-building techniques that make your arguments clear and persuasive.
- Get a practical introduction to POIs and how to engage effectively in a debate round.
- Practice in realistic, high-energy sessions that prepare you for the stage, the floor, and the spotlight.

At Eloquium, our motto is simple: SET THE STANDARD.

Everything you'll do in this bootcamp — from building strong cases to stepping onto the debate floor — is about raising your own bar, mastering the fundamentals, and becoming the best debater you can be.

You've made it here — are you ready to dive into our program?
